

How Vision Heals: Shamanic Practices for the Mind & Body with Itzhak Beery

Saturday, October 26 10am – 5pm

Cost: $100.00

At The Tao Center for Healing

Itzhak Beery reveals shamanic pathways towards deeper self-knowledge and healing.

Discover how the unseen realm of dreams, visions, and spirit hold the key to energy balance, physical and emotional well-being, and one's way to thrive in today's world. Learn how to connect and communicate with nature spirits. Explore the meaning and healing aspects of your power animal spirit. Learn what a soul is from a shamanic perspective. Discover how shamans use lucid dreams to receive spiritual guidance. Understand how to heal and rejuvenate your body while in the dreaming state — and send healing to others. Explore how to use shapeshifting and visionary techniques in daily life.

To register, contact Jana Din at 916-202-5310 or email janadin86@gmail.com
Tao Center for Healing - 1250 Sutterville Road, Suite 210 - Sacramento, CA 95822

Itzhak Beery is a leading intel. Shamanic teacher, healer, speaker, community activist, and author of three Amazon bestsellers books. Since 1995, he has bridged the spiritual and practical wisdom his indigenous teachers entrusted in him with a powerful contemporary approach relevant to our stressful and unbalanced modern times. He is on the faculties of the Kripalu Center, New York Open Center, The Shift Network, Sounds True, CoSM, All Faiths Seminary. He is a staff teacher at the Omega Institute, where he was a Hermitage Program honorary guest. He is the recipient of Ambassador of Peace. He is the founder of ShamanPortal.org, and The Andes Summit, and co-founder of New York Shamanic Circle.